Weekly Wolf Update

Week of August 8, 2022

Back to School Edition

Welcome, Wolves

Dear Valued Allegiance Families,

Welcome to the 2022-23 School Year.

A new school year brings with it optimism, hope, and a renewed sense of purpose.

At Allegiance, we understand and are humbled by the role we play in your children's lives. You are your children's first and primary teachers. We are privileged with the opportunity to support you by providing them a stellar STEAM-based education. We work transparently- what's taught in our classrooms is always available to you.

We are fortunate to be made up of a passionate team of educators determined to make your family's school year truly exceptional by partnering closely with you. We aim to maximize the time we have with your children. As such, we ask for your help in emphasizing the following:

- Arriving on time and ready to learn
- Dressed to learn in Dress Code-compliant clothing
- Focused on learning and growing

Together, we will help our Wolves thrive. This year, we will rise by lifting others.

With Gratitude,

Your Allegiance Team
